New strategy launches with the vision of a North Wales without violence

A new initiative launched on the 18.06.2024 at Conwy Business Centre, Llandudno Junction with the aim of creating a North Wales without violence. Called the North Wales Serious Violence Response Strategy, the objective of the plan is to work with communities to prevent and reduce serious violence across the region.

The new strategy is the first of its kind in Wales and has been introduced as part of the Serious Violence Duty that now lies with local law enforcement across the country, following the Police Crime Sentencing and Courts Act 2022. The duty focuses on bringing partners, including the police, local authorities, fire and rescue services and specified health and criminal justice agencies together to tackle serious violence and its root causes in local areas. Rhyl Raptors in rapture thanks to money seized from criminals

A North Wales wheelchair sports club is racing ahead thanks to funding taken from the proceeds of crime. The club, Rhyl Raptors was visited on 25 June by North Wales Police and Crime Commissioner Andy Dunbobbin to see how the money is being used for the good of the community, and particularly to support the club in expanding their storage capacity for loading and unloading sports wheelchairs.

The source of the grant is the Your Community, Your Choice fund, which supports grass-roots organisations across the region and is backed by the North Wales Police and Crime Commissioner, North Wales Police and Community Trust and North Wales Police. The funding for Your Community, Your Choice comes partly from money seized by the courts through the Proceeds of Crime Act, with the rest from the Police and Crime Commissioner.

Over the eleven years since Your Community, Your Choice started, almost £600,000 has been awarded to nearly 200 projects working to reduce crime in their neighbourhoods and to support the priorities in the Police and Crime Commissioner's Police and Crime Plan. Darllenwch fwy yma.
